

LESSON PLAN #6: Abigail as Feminist

[1] Curriculum framework(s): 8.32 Identify and analyze the point(s) of view in a literary work. 8.33 Analyze patterns of imagery or symbolism and connect them to themes and/or tone and mood.

[2] Goal of the lesson: Students will be able to understand Abigail's views on women's rights, and will assess the role women played in history, comparing to current status.

[3] Expected student outcomes: Students will be able to respond to the most famous letter of Abigail Adams.

[4] Assessment of expected student outcomes: Successful completion of classroom assignment.

[5] Instructional procedures: 45 minutes

Vocabulary: pusillanimity (pusillanimity); impunity

Activities: Have students write a response in their journals to the term: "Sphere of Domesticity." Then introduce them to this quote by Cokie Roberts: "Despite their lack of legal rights, many pre-Revolutionary women still ruled the roost. There was an elaborate view of 'spheres.' The men were in the world, while a woman's place was the house, the 'domestic sphere'" (14). Ask students for an elaboration of how Abigail rules "the roost." What details in her letter indicate this? (Notice details of her caring for the many sick, taking care of the farm, clothing, soap making). Ask students to respond to her many laborious tasks. How does this depict women in the late 18th century?

Next, focus on "Remember the Ladies," Abigail's letter of 31 March 1776. Although Abigail is famous for her demands for women's rights, she was not the only one of her class and era to feel this way. Analyze what she means to say from "I long to hear that you have declared an independence.... Supreme Being make use of that power only for our happiness." This passage is probably her most immortal piece of prose. Have students complete handout "I have a large share of Grandmother Eve's curiosity." As they complete the sheet, individually discuss with students the English law that governed Abigail's life: A woman was dependent upon her father or her husband for all legal transactions. Luckily for Abigail, she had favorable relationships with both. Ask them what the implications of this are for 18th century women and discuss the law's legacy. Ask students to respond with their reactions to the passage...are men "Naturally Tyrannical?" Why might she have written this? How is her plea different from other ideas in the women's movement?

Closure: To conclude in whole group discussion, ask students what a 21st century politician's spouse might write to his or her partner? What political issues do you think are central to our families? (Notice how Abigail controlled/led the family in her era, so consider how family authority appears in our current era).

[6] Material and resources:

- 1) Handout "I have a large share of Grandmother Eve's curiosity"
- 2) Letter from Abigail Adams to John Adams, 31 March-5 April 1776

“I have a large share of Grandmother Eves curiosity”

Abigail Adams to John Thaxter, 15 February 1778

(Adams Family Correspondence, 2:392)

In the same letter to John Thaxter, Abigail writes:

Every assistance and advantage which can be procured is afforded to the sons, whilst the daughters are totally neglected in point of Literature . . . Why should the Females who have a part to act upon the great Theater, and a part not less important to Society, (as the care of a family and the first instruction of Children falls to their share, and if as we are told that first impressions are most durable), is it not of great importance that those who are to instill the first principals should be suiteably qualified for the Trust . . . (2:391).

Clearly Abigail possessed strong views on the subject of women. Using the above quote as well as her letters (in particular her 31 March 1776 letter to John Adams), illustrate how she felt about women’s issues and what the historical implications are for her time period and ours.

Quote from Mrs. Adams	The Significance of the Issue

Student Name _____ Date _____

Epistolary Analysis

Date of letter(s)	Location of letter writer
Sender	Recipient

Topic of letter(s)
Theme(s) of the letter(s)
Significant quotes
Historical details in the letter(s)

Allusions, metaphors, similes and other figures of speech (give examples)
Tone
Images
Diction
Evidence of sarcasm or satire
Vocabulary words

Letter from Abigail Adams to John Adams, 31 March-5 April 1776

Braintree March 31, 1776

I wish you would ever write me a Letter half as long as I write you; and tell me if you may where your Fleet are gone? What sort of Defence Virginia can make against our common Enemy? Whether it is so situated as to make an able Defence? Are not the Gentry Lords and the common people vassals, are they not like the uncivilized Natives Brittain represents us to be? I hope their Riffel Men who have shewen themselves very savage and even Blood thirsty; are not a specimen of the Generality of the people.

I ~~illegible~~ am willing to allow the Colony great merit for having produced a Washington but they have been shamefully duped by a Dunmore.

I have sometimes been ready to think that the passion for Liberty cannot be Equally Strong in the Breasts of those who have been accustomed to deprive their fellow Creatures of theirs. Of this I am certain that it is not founded upon that generous and christian principal of doing to others as we would that others should do unto us.

Do not you want to see Boston; I am fearfull of the small pox, or I should have been in before this time. I got Mr. Crane to go to our House and see what state it was in. I find it has been occupied by one of the Doctors of a Regiment, very dirty, but no other damage has been done to it. The few things which were left in it are all gone. Cranch has the key which he never deliverd up. I have wrote to him for it and am determind to get it cleand as soon as possible and shut it up. I look upon it a new acquisition of property, a property which one month ago I did not value at a single Shilling, and could with pleasure have seen it in flames.

The Town in General is left in a better state than we expected, more oweing to a percipitate flight than any Regard to the inhabitants, tho some individuals discovered a sense of honour and justice and have left the rent of the Houses in which they were, for the owners and the furniture unhurt, or if damaged sufficient to make it good.

Others have committed abominable Ravages. The Mansion House of your President is safe and the furniture unhurt whilst both the House and Furniture of the Solisiter General have fallen a prey to their own merciless party. Surely the very Fiends feel a Reverential awe for Virtue and patriotism, whilst they Detest the paricide and traitor.

I feel very differently at the approach of spring to what I did a month ago. We knew not then whether we could plant or sow with safety, whether when we had toild we could reap the fruits of our own industry, whether we could rest in our own Cottages, or whether we should not be driven from the sea coasts to seek shelter in the wilderness, but now we feel as if we might sit under our own vine and eat the good of the land.

I feel a gaieti de Coar to which before I was a stranger. I think the Sun looks brighter, the Birds sing more melodiously, and Nature puts on a more chearfull countenance. We feel a temporary peace, and the poor fugitives are returning to their deserted habitations.

Tho we felicitate ourselves, we sympathize with those who are trembling least the Lot of Boston should be theirs. But they cannot be in similar circumstances unless pusillanimity and cowardise should take possession of them. They have time and warning given them to see the Evil and shun it. -- I long to hear that you have declared an independency -- and by the way in the new Code of Laws which I suppose it will be necessary for you to make I desire you would Remember the Ladies, and be more generous and favourable to them than your ancestors. Do not put such unlimited power into the hands of the Husbands. Remember all Men would be tyrants if they could. If perticular care and attention is not paid to the Laidies we are determined to foment a Rebellion, and will not hold ourselves bound by any Laws in which we have no voice, or Representation.

That your Sex are Naturally Tyrannical is a Truth so thoroughly established as to admit of no dispute, but such of you as wish to be happy willingly give up the harsh title of Master for the more tender and endearing one of Friend. Why then, not put it out of the power of the vicious and the Lawless to use us with cruelty and indignity with impunity. Men of Sense in all Ages abhor those customs which treat us only as the vassals of your Sex. Regard us then as Beings placed by providence under your protection and in immitation of the Supream Being make use of that power only for our happiness.

April 5

Not having an opportunity of sending this I shall add a few lines more; tho not with a heart so gay. I have been attending the sick chamber of our Neighbour Trot whose affliction I most sensibly feel but cannot discribe, striped of two lovely children in one week. Gorge the Eldest died on wedensday and Billy the youngest on fryday, with the Canker fever, a terrible disorder so much like the throat distemper, that it differs but little from it. Betsy Cranch has been very bad, but upon the recovery. Becky Peck they do not expect will live out the day. Many grown persons are now sick with it, in this street 5. It rages much in other Towns. The Mumps too are very frequent. Isaac is now confined with it. Our own little flock are yet well. My Heart trembles with anxiety for them. God preserve them.

I want to hear much oftener from you than I do. March 8 [\[John to Abigail, 08 March 1776\]](#) was the last date of any that I have yet had. -- You inquire of whether I am making Salt peter. I have not yet attempted it, but after Soap making believe I shall make the experiment. I find as much as I can do to manufacture cloathing for my family ~~wh~~ which would else be Naked. I know of but one person in this part of the Town who has made any, that is Mr. Tertias Bass as he is calld who has got very near an hundred weight which has been found to be very good. I have heard of some others in the other parishes. Mr. Reed of Weymouth has been applied to, to go to Andover to the mills which are now at work, and has gone. I have lately seen a small Manuscrip describing the proportions for the various sorts of powder, ~~such as~~ fit for cannon, small arms and pistols ~~[illegible]~~. If it would be of any Service your way I will get it transcribed and send it to you. -- Every one of your Friends send their Regards, and all the little ones. Your Brothers youngest child lies bad with convulsion fitts. Adieu. I need not say how much I am Your ever faithfull Friend.

A scanned image of the original letter is available at the following site:

<http://www.masshist.org/digitaladams/aea/cfm/doc.cfm?id=L17760331aa>

Letter from Abigail Adams to John Adams, 31 March - 5 April 1776 [electronic edition]. Adams Family Papers: An Electronic Archive. Massachusetts Historical Society.